Revolution on the Mountain

Onwards and upwards in LAAX: enhancement of the mountain infrastructure continues as part of the «Revolution on the Mountain» project. There are new slopes and parks to discover and you can look forward to an ultra-modern gondola for the 2014/2015 winter season.

New Pro-Line in the Curnius Snow Park

The snow parks in LAAX are unique and regularly host international freestyle contests. NEW: The Curnius Snow Park is now enhanced with a 520m long pro-line with 4 kickers for the 2013/14 winter season. The intermediate area is also being extended in the Ils Plauns snow park. A bigger Olympic-sized snow pipe will be ready in time for the 2014/15 winter season.

Slope 50 from Alp Dado to Curnius enhanced

Slope 50 from the Alp Dado valley station towards Curnius has been extended and the route optimised. It is particularly suitable for beginners and less experienced skiers and snowboarders. NEW snowmaking equipment along the whole length of this slope ensures that there is always snow for an enjoyable run back to Laax or Falera.

Phase 3 of Revolution on the Mountain:

Replacement of the La Siala 3-seater chairlift

From the 2014/15 winter season, the existing La Siala 3-seater chairlift will be replaced with an ultra-modern 10-seater gondola. The extension of the Alp Sogn Martin route to La Siala has made a connection to the Galerie possible, allowing better access to the area around La Siala.

Greenstyle

The environmental label of the Weisse Arena Gruppe and LAAX, GREENSTYLE®, stands for more than just an environmentally friendly attitude. Clean air, a stable climate and a functioning ecosystem will provide the undamaged environment that will guarantee our future and that of the next generation. Greenstyle is part of the strategy in LAAX and represents environmental guidelines for the implementation of a host of projects. It has notched up considerable success: targeted measures have significantly reduced the consumption of water, energy, fuel and the production of CO₂. Support us – for the sake of the environment:

- Use the Greenstyle pocket ashtrays for small pieces of litter and cigarette butts.
- There are numerous easily accessible recycling stations all over the area where you can leave your rubbish.
- Please avoid the wildlife quiet zones; there are plenty of excellent opportunities for free riding outside the protected areas.

THANK YOU.

Wildlife quiet zones

Wild animals like to spend the winter in quieter areas of the forests. In order to survive, it is important that they be left alone so they expend as little energy as possible. As well as the more familiar species, there are some rare birds, such as the seriously endangered capercaillie, blackcock and ptarmigan, which are particularly in need of protection. At the edge of the wildlife quiet zones there are relevant signs to indicate the areas and mark the boundaries. The wildlife quiet zones are shown on the map of the slopes.

You can find further information on Greenstyle and the wildlife quiet zones at weissearena.ch.
