During and at the end of the purifying treatment, a dip and water waves are waiting for you to restore the heartbeat and the vascular system, and it also appears to be an effective exercise.

Thermal water area

Kneipp vascular treatment bath

In stepping tanks with salso-bromo-iodic water with different temperature from 24°C to 35°C, it exerts a draining action stepping of river pebbles stimulates the foot area while the friction of the water drains the ankle.

Several hydromassage stations activate the body, allowing a beneficial toning and reactivating action of microcirculation.

Relaxation room

At the end and during the treatment, it is advisable to enjoy some relaxation moments. For this, there are several relaxation areas where you can rest while sipping fragrant purifying and relaxing infusions. And to supplement liquids and glucose, you will find cold drinking water and delicious apples... (all inclusive)

To find out more

The strong presence of mineral salts give intense colours, particularly the presence of "Chlorella", with its greenish hues is an optimum element against skin aging, the result of a smoother and younger skin! Due to the presence of foam that sometimes rises up in the surface of the water, we must thank "Mother Nature" that the water is a living element that the Wellness Centre offers without adding chlorine or other artificial disinfection elements that alter the properties of water. The high concentration of bromine and iodised salts results in a natural disinfectant and antiseptic effect, and constant monitoring guarantees maximum safety.
