History

Opened in 1852, the Mont Cervin Palace belongs to one of the historic hotels in Zermatt and holds a leading role in the local tourism. The meaning of tradition also includes the upkeep the modernisation of infrastructure. Back in the days when the hotel started, our clients also found everything was new and up-to-date. Therefore the Mont Cervin Palace remained closed in 2012 for more than 6 months to reopen its gates brand new with a unique and contemporary 5 star comfort combined with traditionally alpine cosiness.

Location

The Mont Cervin Palace stands for 5 star luxury with best location in the center of the car free village of Zermatt and only 5 minutes away from the train station. The cable cars to the skiing area are reached within walking distance. In front of the hotel, on the Bahnhofstrasse you find sport and souvenir shops as well as shops with international labels and brands.

Zermatt

The air in the mountains 1616 m / 5'300 ft above sea level is vibrating and the view to the 4478 m / 14'691 ft high Matterhorn loaded with magic. Switzerland's most famous mountain is surrounded by 37 other peaks over 4000 m / 13'100 ft. Zermatt offers over 400 km / 248 mi of hiking trails in summer season and 360 km / 223 mi of ski slopes in winter.

Rooms & Suites

Three room types are available:

Alpine: Quality materials create a graceful elegance in the rooms at the Mont Cervin Palace (main buildings)

Chalet: Cosy wooden rooms celebrate the chalet-style in Le Petit Cervin

Family Apartments: The roomy suites in the Résidence accommodation offer enough space for all the family members

The rooms and suites facing south have a fantastic view of the Matterhorn. The mountain view of the rooms facing north is likewise gorgeous.

Restaurants & Bars

Gourmet dining at the Mont Cervin Palace is offered at the Grill Le Cervin (14 points GaultMillau) and Ristorante Capri (17 points GaultMillau, 1 Michelin star from the Capri Palace). The «Le Restaurant» offers a broad assortment of superb, varying dishes. Furthermore there are several restaurants available to guests in the context of the Dine Around concept.

The Joseph's Bar and the Bar at the Petit Cervin is meeting point and invites you to spend some time in a cosy atmosphere accompanied with gentle piano music.
